

Ummey Tabassum

Tabassum joined the Hurrell-Harring Settlement Implementation unit in January 2019 as a Research Specialist. She received her M.A. in International and Comparative Politics and Master of Public Administration from Wright State University in December 2018. Her thesis - Abandoned by Home and Burden of Host: Evaluating States' Economic Ability and Refugee Acceptance through Panel Data Analysis - focused on the ongoing refugee crisis around the world since World War II. While pursuing her graduate degrees, she worked as a Graduate Assistant and Graduate Research Assistant at the School of Public and International Affairs, Wright State University. Prior to joining ILS, she worked at the City of Kettering, Ohio, as a Planning and Development Intern.

She earned her B.A. in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Asian University for Women, Bangladesh in 2014.

Last updated on December 05, 2020.

Print

Table of Contents